My Mission:

Sew Glorious strives to honor you with a joyful, positive alterations experience. I want you to leave me looking fantastic and feeling fantastic.

I alter your dress as if I was altering it for my own daughter, employing high standards in all that I do.

In addition to receiving high quality alterations, Sew Glorious is an inclusive anti-racist wedding vendor which means I will serve all races, genders, sexual identities and body types. My goal is to support you throughout this process so you can feel confident on your wedding day.

The Sew Glorious Alterations Process:

-After completing the Alterations Inquiry Form, I will communicate with you as to my availability. You will then be asked to remit an Alterations Fitting Fee, sign Terms and Conditions, and complete a brief Bridal Intake Questionnaire. The answers to these questions help me determine your bridal vision.

-If your gown requires basic alterations, your Initial Fitting will be scheduled 10-12 weeks prior to your wedding date. If the gown requires reconstruction or significant design changes, your Initial Fitting will be scheduled 14-16 weeks prior to your wedding date.

-Typically, three fittings are needed to make your dress dreams come true:

An Initial Fitting to determine the needed alterations, begin the process, and design your custom veil should you request one;

A Follow-Up Fitting to make additional adjustments; and a Final Fitting where you experience a Bustle Lesson and take your dress home.
